

Regional Information Sharing Systems® (RISS) Officer Safety and Wellness Website

What is the RISS Officer Safety and Wellness Website?

The RISS Officer Safety and Wellness Website serves as a secure “one-stop shop” for law enforcement and criminal justice agencies to access and share timely officer safety-related information. It augments the capabilities available through the RISS Officer Safety Event Deconfliction System (RISSafe™).

What types of resources are available on the website?

- Officer safety awareness
- Officer safety-related videos
- Officer safety training information
- Information on armed and dangerous subjects
- Concealment methods
- Narcotics awareness information
- Domestic terrorism information
- Border security information
- Officer Down Memorial
- Today's Roll Call
- RISSafe Online Training

How do I access the RISS Officer Safety and Wellness Website?

The RISS Officer Safety and Wellness Website is available to all sworn law enforcement officers. RISS users can access the RISS Officer Safety and Wellness Website through the RISS Secure Cloud (RISSNET™) landing page under Officer Safety. In addition, registered RISSNET users can seamlessly access the VALOR Web Portal.

Can officers contribute information to the website?

Yes. Officer contributions and feedback are essential for ensuring a dynamic, ever-changing, and comprehensive website. Officers are encouraged to visit the website frequently to obtain new information, videos, and resources.

About RISS

RISS is a proven, trusted, and evidence-based program that supports the needs of thousands of local, state, federal, and tribal criminal justice and public safety professionals while helping advance the nation's criminal justice strategy. RISS is composed of six regional centers and the RISS Technology Support Center (RTSC). RISS focuses on three priorities: investigative case support; secure information and intelligence sharing; and officer safety, deconfliction, and law enforcement wellness. RISS services and resources impact investigative efforts and operations daily. This is evident in the hundreds of shared success stories agencies and officers submit to RISS each year. To read these, as well as access information regarding statistics and quotes from each state, visit www.riss.net/Impact.

RISS offers full-service delivery, from the beginning of an investigation to the ultimate prosecution and conviction of criminals. An officer can simultaneously query multiple intelligence databases, retrieve information from investigative systems, obtain assistance from intelligence research staff, borrow equipment, receive training, and use analytical resources to help prosecute criminals. RISS is congressionally funded and administered by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), through grant awards. BJA provides funding oversight and program management for the RISS Program.
